Report on International Women's Day

Introduction

On 8 march 2021 Innovative college of pharmacy organized International Women's Day (IWD) is celebrated annually to honor the social, economic, cultural, and political achievements of women worldwide. This day also marks a call to action for accelerating gender parity and fostering women's rights and empowerment.

Global Celebrations and Events

International Women's Day is marked by various events and activities worldwide. These include marches, rallies, conferences, and cultural performances. Many organizations and institutions, including governments, NGOs, and private companies, organize events to promote women's achievements and advocate for gender equality.

Achievements and Progress

IWD has played a significant role in highlighting the progress made towards gender equality and women's rights. There have been notable improvements in women's access to education, healthcare, and political participation. More women are now in leadership roles, and global awareness about gender-based violence and discrimination has increased.

Challenges and Future Goals

Despite the progress, challenges remain. Women continue to face significant barriers, including wage gaps, underrepresentation in leadership positions, and societal norms that perpetuate gender stereotypes. The COVID-19 pandemic has further exacerbated these issues, highlighting the need for sustained efforts towards achieving gender parity.

Conclusion

International Women's Day serves as a powerful reminder of the ongoing struggle for gender equality. It is a day to celebrate the achievements of women, reflect on the progress made, and recognize the challenges that lie ahead. By continuing to advocate for women's rights and gender

Report on International Yoga Day

Introduction

On 21 June 2021 Innovative college of pharmacy organized International Yoga Day, observed every year on June 21st, celebrates the physical, mental, and spiritual benefits of practicing yoga. Established by the United Nations in 2014 and first celebrated in 2015, this day promotes global awareness of yoga's positive impact on health and well-being.

History

The initiative for International Yoga Day was proposed by Indian Prime Minister Narendra Modi at the United Nations General Assembly in 2014. His suggestion was met with overwhelming support, with 177 member states co-sponsoring the resolution. June 21st was chosen for its significance as the longest day of the year in the Northern Hemisphere, a day that holds special meaning in many parts of the world.

Significance

Yoga, an ancient practice originating in India, combines physical postures, breathing exercises, and meditation. It is celebrated worldwide for its benefits, which include improved flexibility, reduced stress, enhanced mental clarity, and a sense of peace and well-being. The day also highlights the cultural heritage of yoga and promotes a healthy lifestyle in harmony with nature.

Celebrations

International Yoga Day is marked by a variety of events, including mass yoga sessions, workshops, and demonstrations held in cities and communities worldwide. These events, often led by experienced yoga instructors, are attended by people of all ages and skill levels. Due to the COVID-19 pandemic, many activities have also moved online, allowing even broader participation.

Impact

The celebration of International Yoga Day has greatly increased global awareness of yoga and its benefits. It has encouraged many individuals to incorporate yoga into their daily routines, fostering physical fitness and mental well-being. The day also promotes cultural exchange.

INNOVATIVE COLLEGE OF PHARMACY
